

Developing a Greener Supply Chain

Congress Centre, London

Wednesday 23 April 08

Helping companies succeed through technology-intensive innovation

Today's Objective

- New links,
- New collaborations

WWW.LTNetwork.org

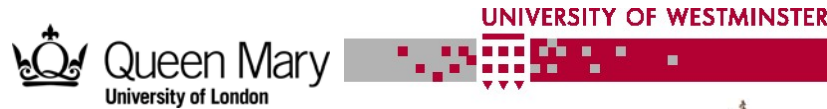

The region's academics

Working with:

SOUTH-EAST OF ENGLAND

LONDON

University of London

EAST OF ENGLAND

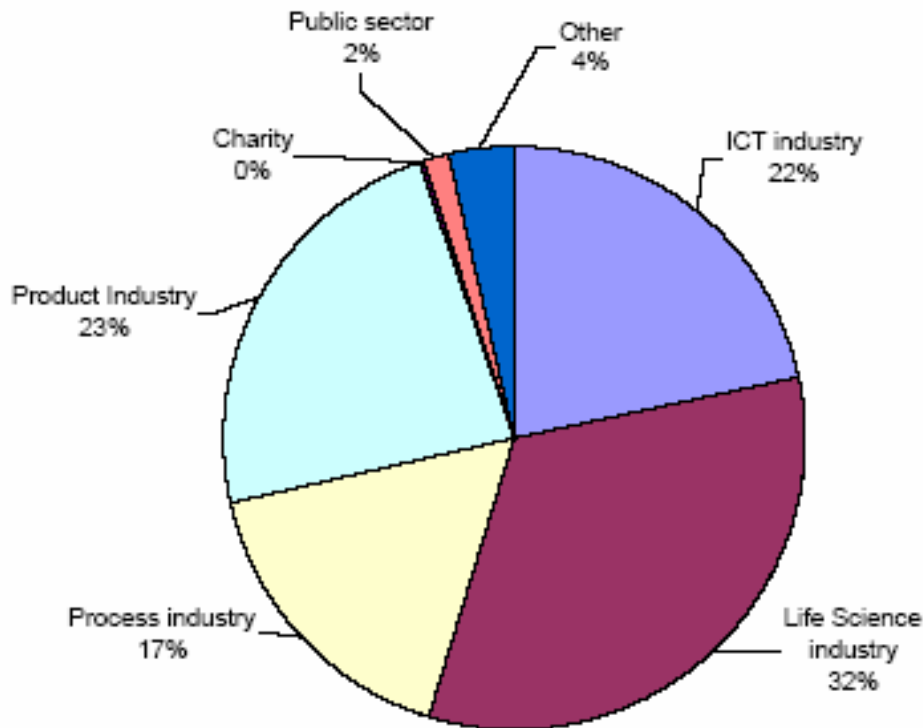

Business Fellow Success

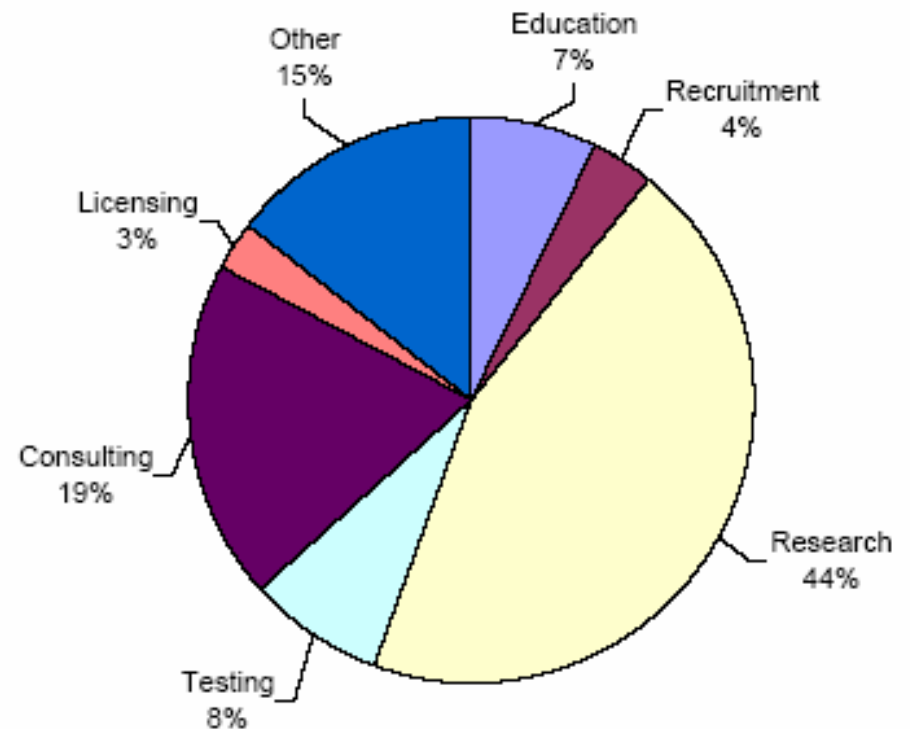

Network outputs for 3 years ending June 2007:

3,482 negotiations creating 840 projects worth >£37m

Type of Client

Type of Work

LTN Services to Industry

- LTN Networking Events-Application focused
 - Invitation-only targeted to senior executives and researchers
- Technology Matching for Industry
 - Helping companies to identify academic partners for specific projects
- Access to European SMEs
 - Assistance for London-based companies to find partners in the EU
- Chargeable services – Expert Insights
 - Bringing together a selection of academic experts to inform the company

2008 event calendar

Date	Event
11-Jun-08	Evening	Self organising networks
2-Jul-08	Day	Sustainability in the urban environment
Sep 08	Morning	Best practice techniques for collaboration

Event Information:

Including sponsorship opportunities
contact:

Kate Ray

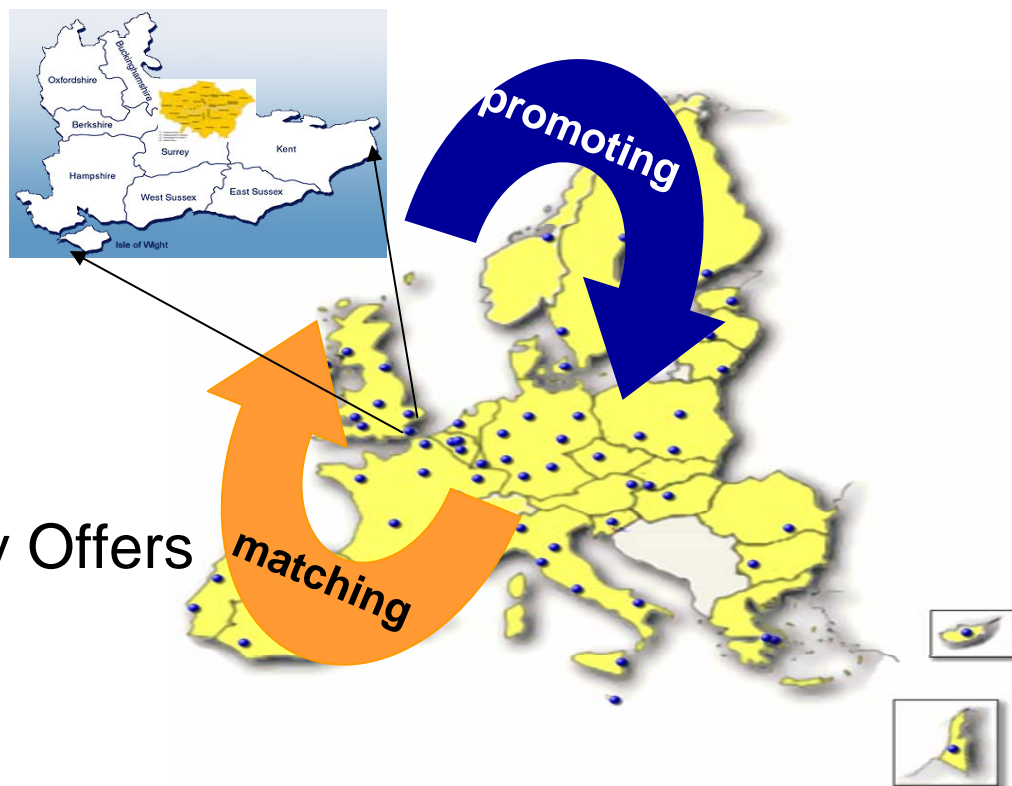

LTN Event & Marketing Manager

k.ray@LTNetwork.org

Tel: +44 (0)870 730 8682

Access to European SME's

- April 08 the Innovation Relay Centre changed its name to the Enterprise Europe Network (EEN). This service aims to promote the transfer of technology-based innovations from research to industry
- Network of 71 centres across EU
- Promoting on EEN website:
London's and SEEDA's Technology Offers or Requests
- Matching EU Technology with:
University research and Industry Offers

Conclusions

- LTN can provide access to
 - Focused Networking groups
 - Leading Research Groups
 - World class academics for consulting projects
 - New and Novel Technologies
- Today's Objective
 - Looking for new collaborations – new links

