

British Starch Industry Association (BSIA)

10 Bloomsbury Way, London, WC1A 2SL Tel: (0)20 7836 2460

What does BSIA stand for?

The British Starch Industry Association (BSIA) represents and promotes the common interests of UK Starch manufacturers.

What is the drive behind BSIA?

BSIA acts on behalf of its members as a central medium of communication with UK Government, any UK trade, regulatory or enforcement bodies and other public/private bodies, and political institutions at a European level, where appropriate.

Who are the current members of BSIA?

How often does BSIA meet?

There are two meetings per year, plus one ad hoc issue or topic meeting per year.

How much does it cost?

Should your organisation want to join, please contact the Associations team via Geraldine.albon@fdf.org.uk for this year's subscription fee. Any joining member of BSIA needs to become a member of the FDF too, and by doing so, your organisation will have access to all the wider benefits that FDF membership brings! Please see <https://www.fdf.org.uk/fdf/about-fdf/reasons-to-join/> for further information on membership.
