

Cereal Ingredient Manufacturers' Association (CIMA)

10 Bloomsbury Way, London, WC1A 2SL Tel: (0)20 7836 2460

What does CIMA stand for?

The Cereal Ingredient Manufacturers' Association (CIMA) is the leading voice of the UK cereal ingredients industry in the interests of members, the industry as a whole, food manufacturers and consumers alike.

What is the drive behind CIMA?

CIMA represents the interests of its members in all matters pertaining to the trade in and processing, marketing and distribution of rusk, breadcrumbs, batters, breaders and related products. The Committee provides a forum to monitor developments concerning residues and contaminants, labelling and additives.

Who are the current members of CIMA?

How often does CIMA meet?

There is one meeting per year, plus one ad hoc issue or topic meeting per year.

How much does it cost?

Should your organisation want to join, please contact the Associations team via Geraldine.albon@fdf.org.uk for this year's subscription fee. Any joining member of CIMA needs to become a member of the FDF too, and by doing so, your organisation will have access to all the wider benefits that FDF membership brings! Please see <https://www.fdf.org.uk/fdf/about-fdf/reasons-to-join/> for further information on membership.
