What does UKAPY stand for?

The UK Association of Producers of Yeast (UKAPY) is the trade association of the UK's producers of yeast.

What is the drive behind UKAPY?

UKAPY acts on behalf of its members as a central medium of communication with UK Government, UK trade regulatory or enforcement bodies and other public/private bodies, and political institutions at a European level, where appropriate.

Who are the current members of UKAPY?

How often does UKAPY meet?

There are three all Members' Meetings and one AGM per year.

How much does it cost?

Should your organisation want to join, please contact the Associations team via Geraldine.albon@fdf.org.uk for this year's subscription fee. Any joining member of UKAPY needs to become a member of the FDF too, and by doing so, your organisation will have access to all the wider benefits that FDF membership brings! Please see <https://www.fdf.org.uk/fdf/about-fdf/reasons-to-join/> for further information on membership.
